WHAT IS CONFINEMENT FOR YOU?

There is a different perception of time, I reaffirm in the will to live the present. Observation and curiosity are enhanced in this strange situation of forced isolation. Going out to the balcony, looking at the sky so much different and variable at every moment, without the trace of any plane. The swifts pious, there are fewer seagulls. The trees on the streets dance when there's wind (or windy). In the street, the market is alive, in the morning they unload fruits and lambs or open calves in canal, the conversations reach the balcony. The house has been transformed into the studio, papers, inks, brushes, pencils and books. Now, after almost four months, the noise of the city is back. I miss the silence of the months of March, April and May.

WHAT COLOR DO YOU ASSOCIATE THE FUTURE WITH?

The future ... it doesn't have color or it has them all, I don't know.
