

MARTINA MILLÀ

“FROM THE CRITIC WINDOW_12”

WHAT IS CONFINEMENT FOR YOU?

It has meant many things, but above all it has allowed us to learn to make a synthesis of all the inputs that came to us in order to achieve an emotional balance in which we can continue to spend our days at home, as a family, in a totally unprecedented domestic daily life. The confinement part, oddly enough, has been the most harmonious. The lack of harmony has already been another story.

WHAT COLOR DO YOU ASSOCIATE THE FUTURE WITH?

All I see is rainbows.

WHAT IMAGE DOES CONFINEMENT SUGGEST TO YOU?

Virginia Woolf's tailless cat sniffing around Odilon Redon's snail.
